The clubs of the SW District have been busy preparing for the September 9th event in addition to their regular programs and activities. The Arts and Flowers Garden Club of Washington hosted a very successful Garden Walk in June, prepared flower vases for the assisted living facilities and purchased the four books from NGC and presented them to the library and schools.

The Boonville Garden Club continues their very successful Yard of the Month program, gave vases of flowers and hanging baskets to three nursing homes, planted flowers at Boonville City Lake, the New Aquatic Center and Johnson Park. They gained a new member while planting. Programs included programs on Fresh Flower Arranging and Vegetable Gardening.

The Christmas Lake Village Garden Club held their annual mum sale on September 4 and will sell maps at the annual Christmas Lake Village Yard Sale on September 19th. The club gave flower arrangements to a local nursing home and made their own arrangements while on a trip to Pretty Bird Flower Farm.

The Garden Club of New Harmony continues to give golf cart tours of the gardens in New Harmony, started a tradition of recognizing a Garden of the Month, and they meet every Tuesday to maintain the twelve community gardens. They traveled to Harmonie State Park for a program on Monarchs and Milkweed.

The Green Thumb Garden Club of Princeton has taken the lead role in preparing for the Fall Seminar. The club is instrumental in maintaining the flower beds at Lyles Station.
